

Minutes of the Dawson Regional Women's Committee Meetings

February/March 2007

The committee had 3 meetings in February and March of 2007 in order to plan for a celebration for International Women's Day.

Tuesday February 20:

Nikki Walsh and Helen Winton in attendance with a representative from the Dawson Women's Shelter.

We discussed possible dates, locale and procedures for the event.

Decided on Saturday March 10

RWC agreed to pay for an advertisement in the Klondike Sun

Posters to be put up around town

Everyone to work on contacting potential performers and art exhibitors

Tuesday February 27

Nikki Walsh, Carol McBride and the special events coordinator from the Dawson Women's Shelter in attendance

Decision to rent St. Mary's Hall; RWC to pay the rental cost

Advertising has been done

Several performers have been line up

RWC to provide veggie, fruit and cheese platters

Shelter to provide coffee, tea and desserts

Donations to go to the Shelter

Melissa Flynn has agreed to be the MC

Thursday March 8

Nikki Walsh, Carol McBride, Helen Winton and the special events co-coordinator from the Dawson Women's Shelter in attendance

Suggestion to have a minute of silence at the beginning of the event in remembrance of the 10 women from Dawson who passed away in the past year

Nikki to look after borrowing small tables from Parks Canada; tablecloths to be borrowed from KIAC

7 performers (singers, slide show, poetry readings, skits) have been lined up and there will also be a sign-up sheet and open mic

Sound equipment to be rented from Dawson City Music Festival and RWC to cover the cost

Agreed to meet at St Mary's at 6:30 to set up and prepare the food

Event to begin at 8 p.m.
